

Women Welfare Advisory Committee

Annual Report 2022-23

Statement of purpose:

The Women Welfare Advisory Committee of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, has worked with the aim of equality and unity amongst all genders and the development of students by providing them a safe space for a healthy discussion and a platform to showcase their skills and thoughts on various issues that matter today. The committee continuously works towards empowerment of girl students through self-defence training programs conducted in association with Delhi Police, imparting knowledge on financial independence, laws protecting rights of the women women health and hygiene, women specific diseases including cancers and their prevention through lectures by eminent speakers. Society also conducts competitions on thought provoking topics, wall decorations and other activities like open mike, so that students are provided a platform to express themselves. The student members of the society are active on social media platforms like Instagram, Facebook, twitter etc. and keep on posting information on women related issues and salutations to women achievers.

wwac.rfa Ever thought of how things got quiet and bland when the IPL ended? If only the fun would continue for longer? 🙄🔥

Well, now it WILL! The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) is all set to organise the Women's Premier League (WPL) for the first time ever! 🏏

Currently in WPL, a total of 5 teams are owned by 5 franchises, which are the Diageo, JSW Group, Adani Group, Capri Group, and Reliance Group. This auction season, BCCI closed the bid for WPL teams on 25 January 2023 and raised a whopping total of Rs. 4669 Crore (US $580 million). 🇮🇳

BACKGROUND:-
22 year old Mahsa Amini was brutally killed by the "morality police" of Iran for showing a bit of her hair, not adhering to the strict dress code laws.

The "morality" police, established by the regime, target and arrest women and girls who wear "improper clothing". These arbitrary arrests often include verbal abuse, physical and sexual violence, torture and even

The Non-Cooperation Movement of 1921 saw Kamala Nehru's entry into the freedom struggle of the country. She emerged as a strong woman breaking all the stereotypes and joining her husband in the Indian Independence movement. She, alongside other lady pioneers, launched a massive protest against the shops selling foreign fabric and alcohol in Allahabad.

wwac.ria This Sunday, we pay tribute to the woman who underwent her inspiring metamorphosis from shy to 'shy'ning at a time when the roots of freedom struggle too were entwined with those of patriarchy.

Remember the Dandi March? Breaking the salt law? Kamala Nehru - the very lady who was widely known as a shy person - was believed to be one of the first leaders to sell contraband salts during salt Satyagraha.

From showcasing bravery in the field to being attentive to the finer details as she set up a dispensary at the Nehru mansion - the Swaraj Bhawan, where injured fighters would get treated, Nehru was the epitome of
