LADLI INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

MAY-JULY, 2022

Ladli foundation Trust organised a special internship program for NSS RLAC volunteers to first hand experience the inner workings of a national award winning NGO. The main aim of this program was to draw the attention of the volunteers towards social work and its inner working thereby introducing the interns to the wide range of career opportunities associated with the field of social work.

3 female interns were selected for the 2 month internship program. The opportunity was specially designed for the volunteers to gain both office and field experience as a stepping stone in their future of social work. Each intern received excellent reviews and LOC's for their hard work and professional behaviour.
